Watercolor Artist Beth Palser to be at Just Jennifer for “History Meets the Arts”

Gettysburg, Pennsylvania – April 11, 2008

Just Jennifer is proud to welcome Beth Palser as their featured artist for the 11th Annual History Meets the Arts Festival in Downtown Gettysburg on April 18-20, 2008.

Beth is a unique watercolor artist from Chester County, Pa. She is the creator of her own individual style called “Factionalism©,” taking realism to a different level by enhancing the reality of the scene through the use of chopped linear brush stokes, which provide movement, depth and a sense of emotion.

Beth graduated from the Art Institute of Philadelphia in 1984 with a degree in advertising and graphic design. She has been a professional watercolor artist for many years. She often works for weeks on a watercolor painting to achieve the quality and detail, which has been the signature of her work. Texture, contrast and vibrant color are other elements Beth is known for in her watercolor paintings.

Just Jennifer is located at 33 York St., Gettysburg, in close proximity to many other galleries involved in “History Meets the Arts.” Beth’s work will be hanging for the entire month of April and she will be here April 18, 19 and 20. The gallery will have a Wine & Cheese Reception on Friday and Saturday night from 5 to 7 p.m. and a special Meet & Greet on Saturday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m.

Why not stay over and enjoy all of the history and arts that Gettysburg has to offer? The Country Inn & Suites by Carlson is conveniently located at the intersections of Route 97 and 15, just a short drive to downtown Gettysburg. The Gettysburg Country Inn & Suites offers a free breakfast every morning, complimentary access to an indoor pool, hot tub and fitness center and located adjacent to the Outlet Shoppes at Gettysburg.
