To All Our Clients & Friends:

Thought you might have an interest in knowing that the new Hotel Indigo and The Residences At 151 are now under construction. On May 8th the existing building started to come down and we are under way. For more information and to follow our progress, please visit the links below. We will strive to keep the photo gallery up-to-date for your review. Any comments or questions let me know.

And again... thanks to all those that have supported this exciting project!
